FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 2030—Rec., dated 23*rd November* 1903.

To—All Treasury Officers and Heads of Departments.

The Officiating Comptroller regrets to observe that in spite of the instructions contained in this office Circular No. 1987 of 21st November 1901, in respect of despatch of letters, bills, etc., many of the enclosures are still received unattached either to lists or to dockets. Attention is therefore invited to the circular in question with a request that instructions may be issued to the offices under their charge for their strict adherence in future.

2. Another point noticed is that in most of the replies to communications from this office the general number and date alone are quoted and not the Departmental letter and number, such as T. A. D. 480, S. A. D. 390 and A. C. 148 given therein. This causes considerable delay and confusion in the distribution of papers among the various branches of this office. The undersigned, therefore, begs that they will be so good as to cause not only the general numbers but also the Departmental letters and numbers, dates being given in all such replies.

H. EAGLES, Offg. Comptroller.
